The Honorable Luke E. Torian Chair, Virginia House Appropriations Committee
General Assembly Building
201 North 9th Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219

Dear Chair Torian and Members of the Committee,

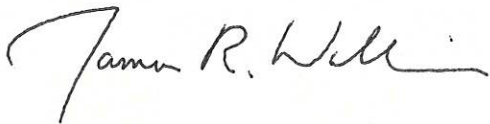

I write to express my support for the inclusion of budget provisions that strengthen community-based services for adults with significant disabilities, including the proposed funding for Specially Adapted Resource Clubs reflected in House Amendment 300#7h and Senate Amendment 300#8s.

Virginia continues to operate under a federal court Permanent Injunction for failure to provide adequate community-integrated services for adults with severe disabilities, as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Olmstead v. L.C. decision. Addressing this long-standing gap is not only a matter of sound public policy, but a matter of civil-rights compliance.

The proposed amendments represent a constructive step toward ensuring that adults with the most significant support needs have access to meaningful, community-based day services — reducing unnecessary isolation, supporting family stability, and helping the Commonwealth move closer to compliance with federal law.

I appreciate your consideration of these amendments and your continued leadership in advancing policies that reflect dignity, inclusion, and equal opportunity for all Virginians.

Sincerely,

James R. Walkinshaw
